MEMORANDUM FOR: See Distribution Below

SUBJECT: Active Component to Reserve Component Mobilization Deferments (ARH Memo 05-011)

1. References:

- a. National Guard Memorandum, Enlistment Criteria Memorandum (ECM), 1 Feb 05
- b. Army Regulation 135-7, Incentive Programs, 15 Apr 96
- c. National Guard Regulation 600-7, Selected Reserve Incentive Programs (SRIP), 26 Mar 99

2. Purpose. Provide guidance for prior service Soldiers transitioning into the Selected Reserve (SELRES) for a one year deferment from involuntary Mobilization.

3. General. Effective immediately, all Soldiers who have completed a deployment from a combat zone within the last 6 months prior to accession, will be provided a period of stabilization equal to one month of dwell time for each month deployed or 12 months, whichever is greater. Active Army Soldiers and prior service Army personnel in a control group, will be given the option of a one year deferment from federal mobilization within the limits of the Secretary of the Army's mobilization authority. This policy does not preclude federal mobilizations directed under Presidential or Secretary of Defense (SECDEF) authority.

4. Soldiers returning from a PCS assignment in a dependent-restricted overseas tour will be stabilized from deployment for at least 6 months.

5. Policy:

a. Active Army Soldiers enlisting in the ARNG through the Reserve Component Career Counselor (RCCC):

(1) Soldier must enlist for the remainder of their military service obligation (MSO) or at least one year (whichever is greater).
